

Deputy Political Director and Research Director

Company Overview

The Republican Attorneys General Association (RAGA) is the only national organization whose mission is electing Republicans to the Office of State Attorney General (AG). RAGA collaborates with our current Republican attorneys general and recruits outstanding candidates, providing them assistance with research, message development, and financial support.

Position Interview

This position is focused solely on the political department. Coordinating both opposition research and legal approval of political expenditures as well as tracking spending and races as needed. Attention to detail is critical. Salary is competitive with excellent benefits. This position reports directly to the Political Director.

Mission:

2020 is a critical year for RAGA, we are defending five incumbents, and have several pickup opportunities on the board. The political department will be running point on these races.

Responsibilities:

- Research Director
 - Work in conjunction with the political director to determine opposition research targets and priorities.
 - Conduct internal research progress, and ensure all outside research is both thorough and accurate.
 - Manage outside opposition research vendors.
 - Ensure outside vendors meet specified deadlines.
 - Substantiate advertisements and make recommendations to Political Director based on research for legal approval.
- Deputy Political Director
 - Track state-by-state spending.
 - Maintain updated briefings for target states.
 - Assist with day-to-day political operations.
 - Ensure invoices are submitted in a timely manner with approval from Political Director.
 - Identify ways to increase efficiency and effectiveness of the political department.

Proficiencies:

- Scrupulous attention to detail
- Superior organizational abilities
- Excel
- Basic campaign fundamentals
- Alacrity with research tools such as PACER and Lexus, or willing to learn
- Ability to work with others on a diverse team and utilize input

Requirements:

- Campaign management experience and/or 3-4 years of campaign, political committee, independent expenditure or state party experience
- Bachelor's Degree
- Database Experience

Application Instructions:

To apply, please e-mail Lee Russell at lrussell@republicanags.com with cover letter and resume.